Hello Everyone!

How has your fall been so far? There have been some really beautiful trees in and around the borough and the township. I hope you are able to take the time to see the glorious colors here or, perhaps, can take some day or weekend trips just to take in the autumn brush strokes from God's amazing palette.

Like the multitude of colors in the fall, our lives are filled with so many different things to be thankful for. They all blend together, the pleasant and the unpleasant, to create a beautiful work of art we call the gift of life. As we wind down the year, we can look back on 2019 as one with personal and church challenges as well as celebrations. In the trials and rewards, we have had the blessings of each other as family with whom we have shared everything. We have been faithful to God. God has been faithful to us.

No matter what we go through as individuals or as Langhorne UMC, or even as the United Methodist church and God's Church Universal, we are never alone – God's faith and love remains steadfast, they endure forever.

Psalm 100 (NRSV)

A Psalm of Thanksgiving.

Make a joyful noise to the Lord, all the earth.

*Worship the Lord with gladness;
come into his presence with singing.*

Know that the Lord is God.

*It is he that made us, and we are his;
we are his people, and the sheep of his pasture.*

*Enter his gates with thanksgiving,
and his courts with praise.*

Give thanks to him, bless his name.

*For the Lord is good;
his steadfast love endures forever,
and his faithfulness to all generations*

In this season of harvest, reflection and thanks, may you all be made aware of how blessed you really are, and how much you are loved by our Creator and Father God.

Have a colorful and wonderful Thanksgiving of truly giving thanks to God for all that God has given you.

God's Grace and Peace be yours,
Laurie, your Pastor

Fall/Winter Sunday Scripture Schedule, Plus...

Here are the scriptures that are scheduled for each Sunday in November and December. They are subject to change should there be a substitute preacher, or if the Holy Spirit moves me to change one or two... I generally pick two of the four to focus on each Sunday, and often use the Psalter reading as a call to worship. Feel free to read them in anticipation of the Sunday services' messages!

Church Finances

Hi Folks.

Our thanks to those who have been such faithful givers over this past year. If you have gotten behind in your offering commitment, now is the time to get caught up. And if you have been blessed with some extra funds this year, please give some extra. Remember how blessed you have been and continue to be as a member of Langhorne UMC.

We are between $50,000.00 - $60,000.00 behind where we need to be right now and need your love, prayers, and gifts to make up the difference.

We, as the finance committee, will be looking to see where other cuts can be made for 2020 in the budget, but we will need your commitment to financial giving as well. Some of you may even be able to tithe in 2020; that is, give 10% of your income. If you can do that, wonderful; and we thank you in advance. If you are tithing now -- THANK YOU. We hope that you will continue to do so for 2020.

Pastor Laurie's Thanksgiving and Christmas letters will be going out this month and next, respectively, to ask that you give that extra amount at this holiday time. Please give generously in response to the letters as well as in the offering plate or online. Did you know you can give to LUMC online? Just go to our website (www.lumc-online.org) and click on the "Donate" button.

Ministry, programs, and maintenance of grounds and buildings depend on you. Our kids, now and in the future, depend on you. We have a future of hope and of good if we remain faithful and keep our primary mission in mind:

"Our United Methodist mission statement is to make disciples for Jesus Christ for the transformation of the world."

Thank you, and may God bless you and all whom you love with peace and love.

Word to Live by for November: THANKFUL

Psalm 107:1 (NIV) -“Give thanks to the LORD, for he is good; his love endures forever.”

1 Thessalonians 5:18 (NIV) – “Give thanks in all circumstances, for this is God’s will for you in Christ Jesus.

Colossians 4:2 (NIV) – “Devote yourselves to prayer, being watchful and thankful.”

Colossians 3:15 (NIV) – “Let the peace of Christ rule in your hearts, since as members of one body you were called to peace. And be thankful.”

Psalm 69:30 (NIV) –“I will praise God’s name in song and glorify him with thanksgiving.”

Some thoughts on being Thankful by Dr. Robert Evans, taken from the website at the address below.

<https://www.rickhanson.net/how-gratitude-can-change-your-life/>

Dr Robert Emmons, Professor of Psychology at the University of California and author of Thanks! How The New Science of Gratitude Can Make You Happier has been researching gratitude for over eight years and states:

“Without gratitude, life can be lonely, depressing and impoverished. Gratitude enriches human life. It elevates, energizes, inspires and transforms, and those who practice it will experience significant improvements in several areas of life including relationships, academics, energy level and even dealing with tragedy and crisis.”

What Are The Benefits Of A Gratitude Practice And Does It Really Work? (partial article)

Gratitude, like Mindfulness, is a term and concept that’s become increasingly trendy over the last few years and the benefits of its practice are regularly written about in a variety of mainstream newspapers, magazines and blogs.

Forbes Magazine last year published an article titled “7 Scientifically Proven Benefits Of Gratitude That Will Motivate You To Give Thanks Year-Round” and listed the following benefits:

Gratitude opens the door to more relationships

Gratitude improves physical health

Gratitude improves psychological health

Gratitude improves empathy and reduces aggression

Grateful people sleep better

Gratitude improves self-esteem

Gratitude increases mental strength

Around three years ago I started my own gratitude practice. It's had more of a positive impact on my life than any other decision I've ever made.

Prior to adopting gratitude I was going through a difficult time in my life. My relationship was in the process of breaking down, a family member was battling a terminal disease, and I wasn't taking very good care of myself. I was caught in the familiar trap of eating badly, not exercising much, working too hard and I often felt tired and overwhelmed.

Knowing that I needed to make some changes in my life but not really sure where to start, I noticed that I was seeing the word gratitude everywhere I went. Seeing this word so often grabbed my attention and I was intrigued. Despite my skepticism that something as simple as expressing appreciation could make a difference to my state of mind, I was curious enough to give it a try.

Over the course of three months I was humbled and amazed by the impact that focusing on gratitude began to have on my life. Day by day, I felt calmer and more at peace and my overall energy levels and enthusiasm for life started to rise.

Within a couple of months...

I was sleeping better

Exercising more

My mood felt lighter and more joyful

I had increased focus at work

I felt less stressed and irritable

I was happier and more content

What this experience proved to me is that incorporating a gratitude practice into your life is one of the best and easiest decisions you can make for your own well-being.

It can help you to make more positive choices, take better care of yourself, feel empowered and to develop a positive 'can do' attitude to life.

Dr. Robert Emmons

Sunday School News

While we are sad to have lost so many of our classmates, we have become a very close group of 4 kids. They have developed a genuine respect for each other which aids in their understanding of the teachings of Jesus.

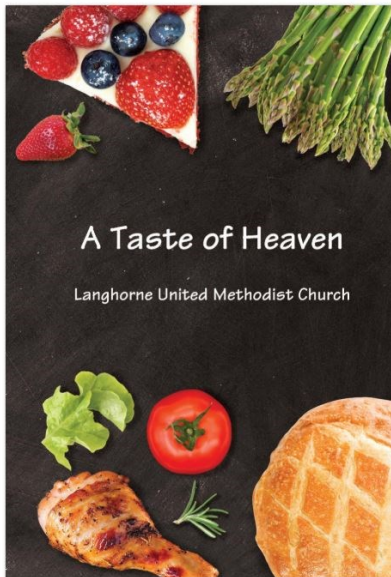

We are using a combination of the Pre-school and One Room Sunday School class lessons from the Deep Blue Kids, published by Cokesbury. The lessons have been dealing with differences between people, and how we, as Christians are to accept these differences and accept all into our congregations and classes. Our first five lessons have been centered on John 4: 1-42, and Acts 4:32, The Community of Believers was one in heart and mind,

So far, we have had a lesson about a child who is deaf, a man who was blind, a man who had been a sinner, and how children are included. Jesus taught that ALL are welcome into the Christian fellowship, all are accepted and forgiven for past sins.

Our next series centers around Exodus 2:11 – 22, 5: 2 – 13:9 which starts with the Call to Freedom and we will be examining the burning bush, the flight from Egypt and life in the wilderness.

A Program of Prison Fellowship

All across the nation, churches are gearing up for another Angel Tree® Christmas season and so are we. We have registered again this year with the intent of providing a special Christmas for 20 children in our area who have an incarcerated parent.

For the past four Christmases we have helped brighten the lives of local children of incarcerated parents through Angel Tree, a program of Prison Fellowship®. The Christmas component of the ministry encompasses the purchasing, wrapping, and delivering gifts to prisoners' children on their incarcerated parents' behalf. This delivers not only a message of love from parent to child, but also the true meaning of Christmas—the Good News of Jesus Christ.

But the Angel Tree ministry doesn't end with Christmas. Our hope is that our first Christmas connection will be the beginning of a rewarding, ongoing relationship with these children and their families. We have been working on continuing our Angel Tree ministry throughout the year and asking God to use our church to help these children and their families grow in their faith, strengthen their family relationships, and fulfill the purposes that God has for their lives.

“For I know the plans I have for you,” declares the LORD, “plans to prosper you and not to harm you, plans to give you hope and a future.”

Jeremiah 29:11 NIV

We have opportunity to reach out to these families and embrace them in the life of our church. I would like to explore these opportunities with you in person. Join Becky Remillard (bremy26@yahoo.com) / (215) 920-3344) and myself as we kick off year six of our Angel Tree Ministry here at Langhorne UMC.

We'd love to hear your ideas on how we might connect further with the children and their caregivers as we strive to fulfill our mission to make disciples of Jesus Christ for the transformation of the world.

Pray for the kids to come to know the Lord and for believers to be there to support, disciple, and follow up with these kids until their parent returns home.

UNITED METHODIST WOMEN

2nd Tuesday every month - 7:00 P.M. – Fellowship Hall

At our October meeting, the United Methodist Women hosted guest speaker, Reverend Lucretia Cotto, of the Del Pueblo Mission in Warrington, PA. Lucy, as she likes to be called, told us about the families she is working with who came from Mexico and are now living in the Warminster area. It is mostly mothers and children because the fathers get sent back. The mothers have to work long hours to provide for their families, and the children very are excited to be able to go to school. We presented Pastor Lucy with forty-two packages of new underwear for use in her mission. Other critical needs for the families are small beds and blankets and sheets. If anyone needs contact information, I can provide it.

We will have a Celebration of Thankfulness at the November UMW meeting November 12. Please bring your World Thank Offering and your Bible. The meeting begins at 7 pm with refreshments.

Harvest Home Food Collection

*Bag donations should be returned by Sunday 11.17.19
and*

We will also collect monetary donations to purchase turkeys for distribution at a local food pantry (Please make checks payable to LUMC and note on check that it is for Harvest Home).
