*The Opening Prayer [unison]

Lord, you've called us to love one another. We hear this truth and want to obey, but we confess that we long for something more specific, more directive. And so we pray, Lord, for eyes to see the needs in our faith community, and we pray to be people of love. We ask for ears to hear stories of hurt and longing and pain and disappointment, and we pray to be people of love. We ask for shoulders to bear the burdens of those near us on the journey of life, and we pray to be a people of love. Amen.
